

Noble Nyina Danso

dan23016@byui.edu • 208-840-9364 • <https://www.linkedin.com/in/noble-danso/>

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Fine Arts

September 2023 - December 2027

Brigham Young University - Idaho

Rexburg, Idaho

- GPA - 3.84/4.0
 - Courses - Theories in Art, Oil Painting I, Anatomical figure drawing, Art History I & II, Drawing I & II, Ceramics I, French I, Basic Writing, Advanced Reasoning and Writing, Health Appraisal, Music and the Humanities, Adobe CC Basics, Anatomy and Physiology.
 - Minor - Biology
 - Emphasis - Illustration
 - Scholarships - BYU - BYU-Idaho Talent Award, BYU-Idaho Scholarship grant, and Vision of the arts scholarship.
-

EXPERIENCE

Office Assistant

April 2024 - August 2024

Brigham Young University - Idaho

Rexburg, Idaho

- Enhanced Administrative Efficiency: Streamlined office operations by implementing a new digital filing system, reducing document retrieval time by 30%.
- Optimized Communication Channels: Managed departmental communications, leading to a 25% increase in faculty-student engagement through timely email updates and announcements.
- Coordinated Departmental Events: Organized 5 art exhibitions and workshops, resulting in a 20% increase in student participation compared to previous semesters.
- Improved Resource Management: Oversaw office supply inventory, introducing a cost-effective ordering process decreased expenses by 15%.

Teaching & Volunteer Experience

April 2022 - August 2023

Accra Ghana Missionary Training Center & Democratic Republic of Congo | 2022 – 2023

Accra, Ghana

- Trained Over 100 Missionaries: Provided English and French instruction to missionaries from English, Portuguese, and French-speaking backgrounds, increasing language proficiency by 40%.
- Developed and Implemented Effective Curriculum: Designed structured language lesson plans that improved speaking confidence and comprehension, leading to a 30% increase in fluency assessment scores.
- Selected for Specialized Training in DR Congo: Due to outstanding performance, was transferred to the Democratic Republic of Congo to train Congolese missionaries facing passport and visa delays, ensuring language preparation remained uninterrupted.
- Tracked and Enhanced Language Progress: Conducted weekly evaluations and one-on-one coaching, resulting in an 85% success rate in meeting language proficiency benchmarks before deployment.
- Designed Missionary-Focused Lessons: Prepared and delivered lessons using "Preach My Gospel" and other approved instructor texts, helping missionaries deepen understanding of their objectives.

- Enhanced Training Effectiveness: Integrated gospel principles with language instruction, improving missionaries' ability to teach and communicate with clarity and confidence in their assigned languages.
- Served Over 2,000 Hours in Humanitarian and Faith-Based Efforts: Provided two years of voluntary service in the Democratic Republic of Congo and Accra, Ghana, offering religious instruction, language training, and community support

Features

- Center for Latter-Day Saint Arts: Featured artist on the Center for Latter-day Saint Arts, selected among a small group of emerging artists for the "Come Follow Me" companionship study guide for June 9-15 (2025)
- Recipient of the J. Kirk Richards Vision in the Arts Scholarship (awarded to 3 students annually for exceptional creative vision).
- BYU–Idaho Talent Award (top 5% of applicants across art disciplines), and recognized as a BYU–Idaho Honorary Student for outstanding academic and artistic achievement.